

To the applicant:

We would like to learn more about you and give you the opportunity to express yourself in writing. You will also be given the chance to tell us more about the things you love and enjoy most when you come to visit BCD. This is a questionnaire to be completed by you in your own words. You may give extensive or brief answers, but we ask that you answer each question in complete sentences. If you need additional space, please attach your answers on a separate piece of paper.
