Peacemaker Homework due December 18th

We have begun to talk about peacemakers and how important it is to be one. This week's homework assignment, which is due on December 18, is to choose a peacemaker and write about him/her. It can be a famous peacemaker, someone in your community, someone in your family, or anyone you feel deserves that title.

You will report the following information about the peacemaker:

Date of birth and death (if applicable)

Country where the peacemaker did/does most of the work of peacemaking

What the work or activities were/are

Why you think this peacemaker is an example for others

This is a four-part report. It is important to do all four parts. Parents may help but the report must be hand-written by you. Pictures are optional.
