

FEBRUARY / MARCH

BOOK REPORT

Using the blank book we create together in class fill in the pages as described below:

Cover- Create a new cover for the book. The only thing that would be the same as the original cover is the author and illustrator's names.

Inside Cover - List the publishing company and the copyright date found on the inside cover of your reading book.

Page opposite the inside cover - Again, list the author, illustrator and a short list of the characters. Include a short description of each character.

Center Spread- A picture of a favorite part of the book along with an explanation of what is happening and why that is a favorite part for you. Use color in your picture.

Next page- Five vocabulary words from the book that are important to the story. Also include their definitions.

Inside back cover- blank, no text.

Back cover- Write a short paragraph describing some of the story that would convince others to buy it and want to read it!

Your book report is due, Thursday, March 6th.
