

MAY BOOK REPORT

Rough draft and addressed envelope due: Tuesday, May 13th /

Final version due: Tuesday, May 20th.

For this book report you will write to a friend or relative and describe the book you have read. (See outline below.) By May 13th you will need to have the rough draft done and bring it in along with a stamped addressed envelope to your friend or relative.

After editing with your teacher that week, you will write the final version and turn that in by May 20.

Below is the format for the rough draft. Copy this onto a piece of lined writing paper filling in the appropriate information. If you need to change a word or two that is fine. This report needs to be hand written.
